

Indecomposable coverings with unit discs

Dömötör Pálvölgyi, ELTE

We disprove the 1980 conjecture of János Pach about the cover-decomposability of open convex sets by showing that the unit disc is not cover-decomposable. In fact, our proof easily generalizes to any set with a smooth boundary. We also show that (the suitable variant of) the conjecture holds for unbounded sets.