

Curriculum Vitae

NAME: Mátyás Domokos
BORN: Budapest (Hungary), July 12, 1968
NATIONALITY: Hungarian
FAMILY STATUS: married, four children

EDUCATION:

Diploma (equivalent to M.Sc.), 1992, L. Eötvös University, Budapest
Candidate of Sci. (equivalent to Ph.D.), 1996, Hungarian Acad. Sci., Budapest.

LANGUAGES SPOKEN:

Hungarian, English, and reads mathematics in Russian.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

Research associate at the Rényi Institute, since 1998.
Junior researcher, Mathematical Institute of the Academy, 1995–98.
Graduate student, Mathematical Institute of the Academy, 1992–95.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE:

Assistant Professor at the L. Eötvös University, 1998–2005.
Instructor at the L. Eötvös University, 1990–98.
Lecturer at CEU, PhD-program, since 2001 autumn.
Lecturer at the Budapest Semesters in Mathematics, since 2004.

CURRENT SPECIALIZATION:

Algebra (invariant and representation theory)

AWARDS, FELLOWSHIPS:

Erdős Price of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences, 2006;
G. Grünwald Prize of the J. Bolyai Mathematical Society, 1994;
Széchenyi István Research Fellowship for 6 months, 1994;
Youth Prize of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences, 1997;
Marie Curie Research Fellowship of the EU for 2 years, 2002-2003.
Erdős Price of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences, 2006;
Bolyai Research Fellowship, Hung. Acad. Sci., 1998-2001 and 2004-2007.

VISITING POSITIONS:

Bulgarian Academy of Sciences (Sofia), 2 months in total, 1993, 1995, 1997;
The Pennsylvania State University (USA), 6 months, 1994;
RWTH Aachen (Germany), 1 month, 1995;
Universität Bielefeld (Germany), 1 month, 1996;
Gesamthochschule Paderborn (Germany), 2 months in total, 1997, 1999;
University of Edinburgh (Scotland), 2 years, 2002, 2003.

INVITED ADDRESSES, CONFERENCES:

8 plenary and 5 short talks at conferences, about 30 seminar talks, given at institutes in Hungary, Germany, Spain, Bulgaria, USA, Romania, Czech Republic, Italy, Poland, UK.

EDITORIAL:

Technical editor of the Matematikai Lapok of the János Bolyai Mathematical Society, 1998-2001;
Mathematical Notes, Univ. Miskolc, member of the editorial board, since 2003.
Serdica Math. J., Bulgarian Acad. Sci., editor since 2004.